5 STEPS FOR A GOOD CONFESSION

1. Examine your conscience – recall the sins that you have committed since your last good confession.
2. Be sincerely sorry for your sins.
3. Confess your sins to the priest.
4. Make certain that you confess all your mortal sins and the number of them.
5. After confession, do the penance the priest gives to you.

ACT OF CONTRITION

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You, and I detest all my sins because I dread the loss of Heaven and the pains of Hell, but most of all because they offend You, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Your grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

Sins of omission: “In what I have done, and in what I have failed to do” - sins of omission may be more serious than sins of commission e.g. Have I omitted to say my prayers?

    Have I omitted to look for and respond to the needs of my friends?

Thought: “In thought, word, and deed”
e.g. Even if I did not gossip in word, did I judge someone in thought?

Each area of my life should be considered:
e.g. My family, my friends, school life, study
